JOIN THE CARTILAGE REVOLUTION

ICRS returns to its Boston roots in 2025!

*Relive the legacy, meet the legends and the luminaries,
Feel the revolutionary spirit of the past, present, and future,
Be at the center of it all in the world's most vibrant healthcare hub!*

Our new, immersive session format puts you in the middle of the action – bring your questions, bring your skills, bring your ENERGY! Personalized medicine takes center stage, with patient AND physician-specific strategies delivering individualized state-of-the-art solutions that apply to you and your patients, in your own local practice and regulatory environment. We invite cross-talk: Not just between cells and tissues, but between people and across specialties, stakeholders and sociodemographic strata, to make your conference truly inclusive and interdisciplinary. Watch the masters perform live surgery and learn the pearls and the principles of joint preservation across the spectrum of resource availability in your country, from established techniques to emerging technologies. Our field is changing rapidly, with tools like Artificial Intelligence being both a catalyst to change and an opportunity to level the playing field – don't be left behind, stay at the cutting edge of the revolution – attend ICRS in Boston 2025!

- Innovative, immersive format
- Comprehensive, cutting-edge topics
- Relevant, revolutionary approaches
- Scientific & surgical breakthroughs!

SPONSORING OPPORTUNITIES

We are thrilled to announce the return of this premium educational event and extend this special invitation to innovative companies specializing in cutting-edge technologies for diagnosing, regenerating, repairing, protecting, or rehabilitating joint cartilage surfaces. Whether your expertise lies in stem cells, growth factors, PRP, bioactive composites, synthetics, scaffolds, allografts, their combinations, or new approaches, this is a prime opportunity for you to showcase your advancements.
